Saturday, March 19th, 12PM - 7PM ~ Sabado, 19 de Marzo, de 12PM a 7 PM

Located at the Clarion Alley, San Francisco (btw. 17th and 18th / Mission and Valencia Streets)

Este mural colectivo tendrá como objetivo difundir, educar e informar al público sobre el pueblo Mapuche. Se enfocará específicamente en la lucha indígena por lograr autonomía y respeto a nivel nacional y global. Esta jornada de resistencia cultural tratará de juntar a la comunidad Chilena, Latina y Estadounidense para crear conciencia sobre las luchas de las culturas indigenas del cono sur.

The objective of this collective mural is to educate, inform and expand the knowledge about the Mapuche people (people of the land). It will specifically focus on the indigenous struggle for autonomy and respect at the national and international level. This session of cultural resistance will try to congregate the Chilean, Latino and North American community in order to create awareness about the struggles of the indigenous cultures of South America.

The mural will be accompanied by a cultural event including:
